Mechanical and Rigging

Two Caterpillar 3126B diesel engines with 1190 hours power this Grand Banks Eastbay Express 38, each producing 450 horsepower. This gives it an impressive cruising speed of 24 knots and a top speed of 28 knots. These efficient and reliable engines have been meticulously maintained, ensuring smooth operation and optimal performance. The Eastbay's deep-V hull design enhances speed and handling, delivering a stable and enjoyable ride in various sea conditions. With a solid cruising range, you'll have the confidence to venture further easily.

Remarks :

This 2002 Grand Banks Eastbay Express 38 is a remarkable vessel that stands out in the luxury express cruiser class, celebrated for its sophisticated design, remarkable craftsmanship, and reliable seaworthiness. Built by Grand Banks, a brand renowned for its heritage in crafting premium yachts, this 38-foot cruiser embodies a perfect blend of traditional style with modern capabilities, setting a high standard for comfort and performance on the water.

At its core, the Eastbay Express 38 features a meticulously engineered deep-V hull, expertly designed to ensure exceptional stability, even in challenging sea conditions. This deep-V design allows for a smooth, dry ride, effortlessly slicing through waves and offering a reassuringly stable experience whether cruising along a calm coastline or venturing into open water. Powered for impressive performance, this yacht is well-suited for leisurely weekend outings, sophisticated gatherings, or extended coastal cruising adventures.

The exterior of the Eastbay Express 38 reveals a graceful blend of classic nautical lines and elegant proportions, providing an aesthetic that remains timelessly appealing. Stepping aboard, the spacious cockpit invites relaxation, with plenty of room for guests to gather and enjoy the views. Moving into the salon, you'll find a well-thought-out layout balancing luxury and functionality. Teak accents and high-quality materials throughout the interior showcase the yacht's craftsmanship, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere.
